

Have you heard? There's a new friend at the TisBest party!

That's right, friends. The one and only Ellen DeGeneres has partnered with TisBest for her farewell season, both to honor some very special people doing good deeds in the world, and hopefully turn a whole bunch of her fans into new charity gift card fans! Read more here.

The first episode featuring TisBest aired on November 3rd. (Check out the heartwarming story of a high school student's kind deed.) Throughout the rest of the season, Ellen will be spotlighting and (thanks to an anonymous donor) surprising many people who are spreading kindness, while also encouraging her audience to spread some kindness themselves by gifting TisBest Charity Gift Cards.

For 19 seasons, Ellen has used her daytime talk show as a platform to give back, spread good, and raise awareness for important causes. TisBest is thrilled to be teaming up with The Ellen DeGeneres Show to keep making the world a better place and celebrate her final season.

Follow along—and prepare to be inspired.

Be sure to watch the show, follow the socials, and log into Ellen's new smile network for a season full of powerful stories (get those tissues ready), uplifting pep talks from some of your favorite celebrities, and some surprises from TisBest!

And then, tell us: How are you giving back this year?

We'd love to hear about the good you're doing in the world, too! Share with us on social media by tagging @tisbestcards on Instagram or @TisBest on Facebook.

Thanks for being on the journey with us. We're grateful for you!
